

For years our staff has often received requests to start a counseling course that will benefit teachers, parents, social workers and all those whose work involves dealing with others effectively.

This year we have decided to respond to these expressed needs by making a Basic Counselling Course available specially to such persons.

Focusing on the basic aspects of counselling theory and practicum, this 5-month program equips participants to counsel people in various different settings.

OBJECTIVE:

In keeping with the vision of Premanjali training programs, our goal is to make our participants feel confident in counselling in the context of their basic relationships with schools, parishes, institutions, and organizations.
